

WEBSITE COOKIE STATEMENT

The purpose of this statement is to describe what cookies are, what we use them for, and how you can manage them during your visit to, or use of this website.

What are cookies?

We may place small text files called ‘cookies’ on your device when you visit the website. These files do not contain personal data, but they do contain a personal identifier allowing us to associate your personal data with a certain device. Many websites use cookies and you can find out more about them at All About Cookies.

Why do we use cookies?

These files serve a number of useful purposes for you, including:

- improving how the website performs;
- understanding who the audience is so that we can provide content most relevant to you;
- allowing third parties to provide services to the website.

The types of cookies used

We use different types of cookies on the website. Some of these cookies are placed by us, while others are placed by our third-party plug-ins, suppliers or advertisers. These cookies may be deleted from your device at different times, such as at the end of your browsing session (when you leave the website) or after a pre-set amount of time, or they may persist on your device until you delete them.

We use the following types of cookies on the website:

- essential cookies – these are cookies that allow the website to perform its essential functions. Without these cookies, some parts of the websites would stop working.
- site analytics cookies – these are cookies that monitor how the website is performing, and how you interact with it. We use them to know how best to improve the website or services.

Deleting cookies

Your internet browser generally accepts cookies automatically, but you can often change this setting to stop accepting them. You can also delete cookies manually. You can read how to do this at Digital Trends.

Deleting, or no longer accepting cookies, may prevent you from accessing certain aspects of the website where cookies are necessary or because the website forgot your preferences.

Updates to this policy

We may occasionally make changes to this statement. When we make material changes to this statement, we will provide you with a prominent notice on the website or send you an email. We may notify you in advance.
